

ACCOMODATION

In Jemeithang, there are many homestays available, all ready to accommodate guests. Discover Jemeithang's culture and nature while staying in traditional and modern homestays.

HOW TO REACH

• Lokpriya Gopinath Bordoloi International Airport, Guwahati. (511km)

• Paltan Bazaar, Guwahati (509 km)

• Guwahati to Jemeithang by road: Book a shared sumo (15 hrs drive 505 km)

• Tezpur to Jemeithang by road: Book a shared sumo (11 hrs drive 400 km)

BEST TIME TO VISIT

- Yui Chamtay: August to May
- Gorpo Tengchen trail: September to December
- KumpoTser trail: August to December
- Nyamjang Chu river bank trail: October to April
- Losar Festival: February
- Gorsam Kora Festival: March

GET IN TOUCH

Tenzing Gyatso
(General Secretary-PLACCAMC)
☎ 8798086528

Dechin Pema
(Project Officer, WWF-INDIA)
☎ 9436625313

green hub
Youth Fellowship & Video for Change

FURTHER & BEYOND

ROYAL ENFIELD

JEMEITHANG

The Realm of Peace

ཨོ་མ་ཁི་པ་རྒྱལ་ཁོངས་

Unearthing ancient charm, mystique and diverse wildlife...

བཀྲ་ཤིས་བདེ་ལེགས་

JEMEITHANG

Explore the Land of Majestic Himalayan mountain, Unparalleled culture and harbouring abundant biodiversity. Jemeithang valley is on the bank of the Nyamjang Chu river, which is situated in Tawang district, Arunachal Pradesh, between Bhutan and China border.

HIGHLIGHTS

- The nomadic pastoralist way of life is still prevalent in the Jemeithang valley
- Jemeithang is home to endangered species like Red Panda and Black necked Crane
- Asia's second largest stupa Gorsam Chorten is located in Jemeithang
- 800-1000 old traditional stone houses

ACTIVITIES

YUI CHAMTAY

- Start the trail from the Gorsam Chorten Stupa, the second largest Stupa in Asia
- Experience the holiness of Khinzamane, a sacred Buddhist site
- Experience Monpa culture

GORPO TENGCHEN

- A 3-4 km two day trail
- Night stay with Mrokpa people
- Experience the traditional way of making Gyetsoma milk's ghee and churpi with Mrokpa

KUMPOTSER TRAIL

- KumpoTser is a 3-4 kms one day trail
- Experience Wildlife: Red Panda, Himalayan Monal, Goral and many more
- Authentic lunch with Mrokpa people

NYAMJANG CHU RIVER BANK TRAIL

- This is a 3-4 km birding trail by the Nyamjang Chu river
- Different species of birds can be observed
- The Critically endangered Black-necked Crane can be spotted here in winter