

ABOUT US

Simong is a beautiful Adi village on the bank of the mighty Siang river in the Upper Siang district of Arunachal Pradesh, offers a blend of rich traditions, breathtaking landscapes, and sustainable living. Experience indigenous culture, trek through pristine forests, and support community-driven conservation efforts.

ACCOMODATION

Our homes are open for you!

HOW TO REACH

Drive From

Pasighat Airport, 111 km, 4hrs

Murkong Selek Railway Station, 148 km, 4.5 hrs

Dibrugarh 260 km, 6.5 hrs

Guwahati 663 km, 15 hrs with a night halt at Pasighat

CONTACT

E-mail www.simongtourism@gmail.com

+91 69098 12664 (Agur Litin CCA Team lead)

+91 8259993839 (Aloti Boli, Lamkang Society President)

+91 7085321869 (Geting, RT Fellow)

green hub
Youth Fellowship & Video for Change

ROYAL ENFIELD

PARTNER ORGANISATIONS: Litin CCS Lamkang Welfare Society

SIMONG

ECHOES OF ANCESTORS

"EXPLORE WITH US"

JIHANG TREK

For the trekking enthusiast, a 10 day trek to walk up the high altitude ancestral Jihang route used by the people of Simong to celebrate the coming of age ceremony for their boys who trek the high altitude Eko Dumbing mountain to collect Aconite root poison as offerings to deities.

BEST TIME TO VISIT

March to April

Experience birding and Takin expeditions in CCA, and visit two lakes, Yammeng and Hipit.

FARM & FORAGE

A 3-day experience to learn sustainable agricultural practices, forage wild edibles with the Simong community and pick up high altitude survival skills from the Eko Dumbing Adventures team.

BEST TIME TO VISIT

September to November

Experience Hiyeng trail with Eko Dumbing adventure team and the community, learn survival skill and wild foraging.

THE FIVE ELEMENT WALK

Five days in Simong to reconnect with the purity of nature. Focusing on each element—Earth, Water, Fire, Air, and Spirit—through curated trails, and activities that immerse you in Simong's culture.

BEST TIME TO VISIT

October to April

Experience nature's mystery Ane Kone, a small waterfall that turns objects to stones.